

Message from the Board

Our All (Council) Candidates' Meeting was well attended with over 60 people in the audience. From veterans like Charlie Cornfield, Ron Kerr, and Marlene Wright, to newcomers Daniel Franklin, Al Buxton, and Kermit Dahl, everyone was heard from, and everyone had a chance to comment on issues like affordable housing, better transit, assisted living, and keeping Seniors in their own homes.

Our own Glen lobbied for changing bus routes so that we can have service to the hospital, and people heard about the new Seniors' Network and the Seniors' Hub initiative. Claire, Michelle and Marlene pledged their full support for the program and for the participation of the Seniors' Centre in the program.

We were commended for holding the All Candidates' Meeting, and Karen was complimented on her time-keeping. Thanks to Karen and Ann for all their help.

Thank you to Nora for the great job putting up seasonal decorations. And thanks for contributing so many of them to the Centre at no cost!

Thank you to Glen for donating a rotating rack on casters to hold 16 pamphlets and brochures.

There will be a General Membership Meeting on Wednesday, December 5th, to review proposed By-Law changes. Details to follow.

Volunteer spotlight: follow-up from October

Apologies to Candy!! She does not, in fact, keep any money from plant sales. She turns the monies in to the Centre as part of "Arts and Crafts" earnings, and pays for soil, fertilizer, and rooting powder out of her own money.

Thank You Candy!

Fly Tying and Earrings Workshop

Don Daniels, who writes the Fishing Corner in the Mirror every week, will be leading a workshop on Tuesday, November 27th, from 1 until 3 in Jessie's Room

Don will supply everything.

He can also demonstrate how to make feather earrings.

The sign up sheet is at the front desk.

Employee Spotlight

No one remembers how Dos got her nickname. Her name is actually Delores, and she is our only paid employee at the Centre.

Born in Duncan, she has lived at Lake Cowichan, Sayward, and now Campbell River. Her daughter Barbara is a bookkeeper, and son Tim often volunteers to wash dishes in our kitchen.

Dos started cooking at a young age, taught by her Mom. Her most vivid early memory is cooking dinner for her Dad at the age of 11. She seriously burned his pork chops-blackened them. But that didn't stop her, and by the age of 16, she was working as a cook and hasn't looked back.

In 1994 she and her husband leased The Cable House Restaurant in Sayward and she was famous for her pies. The restaurant sat 50, so imagine when 7 tour buses pulled up at the same time! Fortunately there was enough pie for 364 passengers! She fondly remembers ferry passengers racing to get to the restaurant first! (This author can attest to her magnificent lemon meringue pie...).

Dos also does catering, and with her team of friends, provided the meal at our Volunteer Appreciation Lunch a few weeks ago. When asked what her least favourite item to cook was, she immediately answered Liver. But she likes making curried chicken. As for what Santa was going to bring her, she admitted that she doesn't need anything, but white wine makes her smile!

Baking Contributions
