It seems like December was only yesterday!

Lots of free romance novels available in the lobby – help yourself to the soft covers on the free table, and if you need some free reading glasses, there is also a table with several donated pairs on it. There are lots of hard cover books available by donation. We also have several jigsaw puzzles that may be missing a piece or two. Are you up to the challenge? (No need to bring them back!!!)

Thanks to Shurlee and now Faye for organizing the lending library and sorting through the puzzles. Faye also cleaned up the bulletin boards near the washroom – over half the business cards represented services that are no longer in business!!

Just a reminder that Colin has set up a DVD lending library – he has a list of available titles at the front desk.

Many thanks to Sam for arranging to get our older pool table refurbished! Keep buying those hot dogs on barbeque days and we will soon be able to replace the bumper rails on the newer table!

Once again Nora's decorating for St. Patrick's Day brings some colour to the Centre – thanks for doing that even though you were under the weather.

It was Georgia's birthday last week and we managed to get a photo. Georgia not only helps out in the kitchen, but she is also the source of all the tasty snacks available at the front desk. Much appreciated. And thank you to the bingo team – Rick, Josie, Susan, Georgia, and Sam.

Our kitchen gang is amazing. Dot is our Kitchen Liaison, ably assisted by volunteers like Sam, Norman, Georgia, Nora, Lorna, Fran, Shane, Marie, Marlene, and the students from Robron School, and our stalwart cashier Thomasine. There are often new faces helping out for a day or two, and I apologize if I don't know all the names – Betty and Tom are two recent helpers. Many thanks.

It truly takes a village – or a whole whack of volunteers – to keep our Centre going. A special thanks to our board members, especially Genevieve and Rick who have helped form our Executive!

Now let's hope all that snow melts soon!

Marcia
