Message from President Dot Muir

Happy New Year everyone !!

The start of another year, they seem to be flying by way too fast. I hope everyone enjoyed a nice Christmas and are looking forward to 2025.

I am happy to report we have our new lease for three years. With this we can plan events without worrying about losing the lease in a year. Thank you to the City and Alan Eddie for giving us this time.

The Board directors and I take this opportunity to thank all members for their part this past year in making our club a good place to be.

We are starting the new year's activities with our crib tournament on the 23rd Jan, $10.00 entry with cash prizes. Always a good day. The last Thursday of the month, January 30, come out and enjoy our tacky tourist pot luck dinner. Prizes for the tackiest tourist. These pot lucks are always fun and good food and friends getting together.

Our AGM is being held early this year Tuesday, January 21 at 1:30. Come out and vote or apply for a Board position. It is your club so we like to hear from you, any concerns let the Board know.

This message is short as not much happening so far. Once the new Board is in place they can get the year moving.

Thank you all for your support the last two years, I have enjoyed being your president. It has been an interesting experience for me.

Take care stay safe and healthy, Dot

Craft Sale

Genevieve confirms that the craft sale brought in a total of $540.

Annual General Meeting
